

Refi PossibleSM Mortgage

ALL FOR HOME

April 2022

The Freddie Mac Refi PossibleSM (Refi Possible) refinance offering provides expanded flexibilities to encourage borrowers who may benefit from lower interest rates and want to refinance into a more sustainable mortgage that promotes long-term homeownership success. With expanded eligibilities, Refi Possible enables even more low- and moderate-income creditworthy borrowers to reduce their monthly mortgage expenses.

- General eligibility requirements apply for mortgages secured by manufactured homes; see Guide Chapter 5703.3

1-unit other than Manufactured Homes	97% ²
Manufactured Homes	95%
Mortgage with a non-occupying Borrower	95% ²

Mortgage Payment History

As announced in Bulletin 2021-17, mortgages being refinanced as Refi Possible must not have been:

- 30 days delinquent in the most recent six months.
- 30 days delinquent more than once in the most recent 12 months.
- 60 or more days delinquent in the most recent 12 months.

Use of the credit report

The Seller may use the credit report to determine if the payment history requirements have been met through the last reported mortgage tradeline date.

Additional due diligence

The Seller is responsible for establishing the payment history between the date the mortgage tradeline was last reported and the note date. For example, Sellers may check the date of the tradeline information on the credit report prior to the note date or check their servicing records from the Servicer transactions.

Eligibility for mortgages with a COVID-19 forbearance plan.

If the borrower has missed payments due to a COVID-19 forbearance and those payments have been resolved according to the temporary eligibility requirements in Bulletin 2020-17, those missed payments are not considered delinquencies for the purpose of meeting the payment history requirements.

² A TLTV ratio up to 105% is permitted when the Mortgage is not secured by a Manufactured Home and secondary financing is an Affordable Second®

If the mortgage being refinanced...	Then...
Had delinquencies that do not meet the payment history requirements above due to a COVID-19 forbearance plan.	The mortgage is ELIGIBLE for Refi Possible, provided that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The mortgage is current as of the note date of the new Mortgage according to Bulletin 2020-17. • All requirements of Bulletin 2020-17 are met. • Delinquencies during the COVID-19 forbearance are not reported on the credit report.
Had delinquencies that do not meet the payment history requirements above for any other reason.	The mortgage is INELIGIBLE for Refi Possible.

NOTE

The additional due diligence required in Bulletin 2020-17 is to determine if the mortgage being refinanced is current as of the note date of the new mortgage. Additional requirements must be met if the mortgage is not current. These are temporary requirements that must be met in addition to the payment history requirements for Refi Possible for as long as these temporary requirements remain in effect. Both the payment history requirements for Refi Possible and the additional requirements established in Bulletin 2020-17 must be met for a mortgage to be eligible as a Refi Possible mortgage.

NOTE

- LPA will use the credit report to establish payment history through the date the mortgage tradeline was last reported on the credit report.
- Seller is responsible for checking that the payment history requirements are met from the last reported mortgage tradeline date to note date. Use of updated credit report is permitted.
- Seller must verify whether mortgage being refinanced is current as of the note date of the new mortgage.
- Seller must verify compliance with all other COVID-19 related requirements and guidance of Bulletin 2020-17 as long as they remain in effect.
- Borrower must comply with applicable recovery time periods for reestablishing credit reputation following significant derogatory credit events. Seller must document extenuating circumstance is applicable.

Secondary Financing

No new secondary financing is permitted for a Refi Possible mortgage, except when a junior lien is refinanced at the same time with the first lien and there is no increase in the unpaid principal balance or the monthly principal and interest payment of the junior lien.

- Existing junior lien must be subordinated to the Refi Possible mortgage.
- Must meet the requirements for secondary financing in Guide Chapter 4204.1.
- May be refinanced simultaneously with the existing first lien provided that there is no increase in the unpaid principal balance (UPB) or monthly principal and interest payment of the junior lien.
- No new subordinate financing permitted, except to replace existing subordinate financing as stated above.

Borrower Benefit

The refinance transaction must result in both of the following:

- A First Lien mortgage interest rate reduction of at least 50 basis points (bps) and a reduction in monthly mortgage payment amount.

Delivery Requirements

Sellers must deliver the following ULDD Data Points:

- Related Loan Investor Type (Sort ID 222): FRE.
- Related Investor Loan Identifier (Sort ID 221): <Associated FRE Loan #>, the 9-digit Freddie Mac loan number assigned to the original mortgage.
- Investor Feature Identifier (Sort ID 368): J05, indicating Refi Possible Mortgage.
